It Pays to Vote the Republican Ticket.
The ragged clothing shows that it pays.
The patched clothing shows that it pays.
The slipshod shoes shows that it pays.
The old hats show that it pays.
The ill-fed children show that it pays.
The worn and weary wife shows that it pays.
The struggle to pry rent shows that it pays.
The struggle for something to eat shows that it pays.
The mortgage on the home shows that it pays.
The price of coal shows that it pays.
The meat combine shows that it pays.
The milling trust on bread shows that it pays.
The bankers' palaces show that it pays.
The high salaried officials show that it pays.
The rich man's militia shows that it pays.
When the poor people, the great mass who create all wealth, find these are the fruits of their devotion to the Republican party, why shouldn't they continue to vote the ticket!—The Coming Crisis.

An exchange says that the committee appointed by the mayor of New Orleans to investigate the Mafia and similar organizations have brought to light some startling facts. Before Chief of Police Hennessey was murdered, evidence was traced of ninety-four assassinations by Sicilians or Italians, which went unpunished because of the secrecy which accompanied each act. They found the Mafia had gained a strong foothold, and terrorized the Italian population of the city, levying tribute at pleasure under the threat of death. They had even attempted to poison the Italian consul. Several remedies were proposed by the committee, the most radical of which was the absolute exclusion in future of Sicilians and Southern Italians—classifying them with Chinese as an undesirable and prohibited class. Our cities are being filled up with these people, and steamship lines have agents who are busily engaged in securing the slums of Italy for more. It is true that our law-makers should put a stop to the immigration of such undesirable people. They add little to the wealth of the nation, being peddlers, prowlers and organ-grinders. Let the same ban that has been placed upon the Chinese be placed on them.

What the Force Bill Means.
It is designed to overthrow popular elections in the south. It is meant to have Davenport and a gang of negro superviors do the "electing." Under the bill just as many Republican members of Congress would be selected by Mr. Davenport as the necessities of the time demanded, and Congress would then be ready to respond to any requisition for more subsidies and bounties for our "infant" industries.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Mr. Kinsey said that he believed that Missouri soil would be worth $5 per acre more if the people would only elect Major Warner Governor. Our candid opinion is that by the time the people see fit to elect a man of Warner's record Governor of this grand and glorious State, that Missouri soil will be worth so much it will be peddled out by the peck for seed in some of the highly protected Eastern States.—Mo. The bottle of Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic cured me entirely, after physicians had tried unsuccessfully for 8 months to relieve me of nervous debility. W. HENNEFELD.

Dr. RENO COUNTY, Kan., Oct. 1, 1890.
A boy eight years old suffered severely from nervousness and twitchings. After using Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic for a time, he was entirely restored. Another case is that of a young lady who after using a bottle of Pastor Koening's Tonic a positive cure was effected from epilepsy. REV. JOHN LOEWENIC.

My health was entirely ruined by epilepsy and I could do no work. I used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic. The effect was such that I daily grew better, and stronger; since four months I have sold heavy labor, and have had no more fits. JOHN MOLLTON.
